

Break Through. Nick Pryce (12) charges his way through a wall of The First Academy Royals. “I get a rush when all I see in front of me is green,” said Nick. Photo by J. Bazeley

Let’s Go Tigers. At the game against The First Academy, Austin Holloway (12), varsity cheerleading captain, shouts to the crowd. Photo by J. Bazeley

Making The Catch. After the snap, Jake Shuman (10) catches the ball in anticipation of a field goal kicked by Stephen Gates (12) in The First Academy game. Photo by J. Bazeley

Tiger Stampede. The Tigers storm the field in their game against The First Academy. Photo by Marisa Cartier

Line It Up. Holy Trinity gets ready to hike the ball during their game against The First Academy on September 26. The team pulled in the win 20-17. Photo by Sydney Gillen

Take Down. Justin Dougherty (12) and Scott Kohlbrand (11) work together to tackle an Orangewood player on their September 5 game. Photo by J. Bazeley

Pick Me Up. Stephen Gates (12) and Marcus Maye (9) celebrate after Stephen kicks the winning field goal against The First Academy in overtime. Photo by J. Bazeley

Tackle heart disease

During this year’s football season, Justin Dougherty (12) started a program that changed peoples lives. “Two years ago, my grandpa died of heart disease when he was 76. It was really hard losing him, but in order to raise money for the American Heart Association, I started a foundation called Tackle Heart Disease, where people pledge money for every tackle that I make during the season.”

<http://www.tackleheartdisease.org>